

CHILD OF THE STREET

TO PERUVIAN PROPHET

Is Your Soul Calling You To Learn More About Ancient Wisdom And Prophecy From The Andes?

Exceptional, limited opportunity to meet Washington Gibaja Tapia
"Washi The Unstoppable" Your life will never be the same!

This magnificent day will embody sharing ceremony, ritual and healing with this incredible, compassionate healer. He taps into other realms and touches your heart and soul with his magical and humorous way of speaking and his extraordinary insights and gifts.

- ◆ At age 10, was teaching people how to stop the flow of water by using the power of the mind.
- ◆ At age 10, said, "I must become President and end poverty in my country. I remember my mission."
- ◆ At age 16, traveled for days and presented papers to the President demanding better conditions for the underprivileged.
- ◆ Age 18, opened food lines for the Universal Heart.
- ◆ Since age 18 has been organizing Christmas celebrations for up to 4,000 street children and 1000 underprivileged women a year.

- ◆ Age 19, opened a University for Human Goodness.
- ◆ Age 23, honored for "Youth Making the Most Difference on the Planet" at the Global Peace Summit in Bali with Desmond Tutu and Walter Cronkite.
- ◆ Age 24, ran for Mayor and received 47% of the vote.
- ◆ Age 25, currently building a hotel / healing center / orphanage.
- ◆ Taps into incredible wisdom. Called a "Young Dalai Lama" because of his compassion and the twinkle in his eye. Dedicated to educating and empowering the poor and the destitute!

When: March 8, 2008 10am to 5pm

Where: Room 34, Yavapai College, 4215 Arts Village Drive, Sedona

Cost: $99 donation for the day.

Tel: 928-284-1110 928-554-4070 for reservations

Sponsored by Path of the Heart

A 501©(3) charitable, nonprofit organization