Some Continuing Education Units available

- Are you interested in progressive healing modalities, complimentary, alternative and integrative medicine, personal and spiritual growth and energy psychology? If so, take advantage of this exceptional and unparalleled opportunity to learn and experience the innovative, ground-breaking work of Dr. Sharon Forrest.
- Is your goal to be able to quickly and accurately ascertain the underlying cause of a physical or emotional issue, immediately know how to correct it, achieve and maintain the highest possible level of emotional and physical health for you, your loved ones and/or clients? You can serve at the most profound level of healing and growth possible.
- A successful professional future belongs to the person who prepares for it. In the career of being a Healing Arts professional, the future of a client's quality of life belongs to the therapist who has the appropriate proficiency to impact a client's life. Becoming a “Results Guaranteed” Practitioner is one of the most important career moves you can make and the most life enhancing for you, your loved ones and your clients.
- This “Results Guaranteed” retreat will acquaint you with powerful innovative healing approaches that work successfully with the innate wisdom of one’s own body.

This unique event is a gateway of consciousness for healers, physicians, therapists, and people who are ready to expand their awareness and align with direct and lasting healing.
