Women Will Gather The last Sunday afternoon of each month we offer empowerment, introspection, forgiveness, purposeful action, and support for women who want to create a balanced world where life is respected, appreciated, and honored.

Every Woman Has a Gift Perhaps you took your power back, overcame a challenge such as illness or addiction, or are living the life of your dreams. By sharing your experience you empower and inspire other women to move beyond the 'roadblocks' in their lives.

You Can Attend This Gathering for Many Reasons To find a sense of family, develop new alliances, or just for fun. You can host a future Gathering, volunteer at our headquarters, and show up with all your dreams bursting from your heart as you look for the beacons of like-spirited women that will effortlessly magnetize to you! This Gathering is aimed to remind you of the limitless possibilities gifted to us that simply need to be tapped into. One of the best ways to heal, to share your dream, to reach your potential and launch your passion in the world is to do it with a community of Women.

This is a Momentous Time in History When women all over the world are feeling the call to take bold stand demonstrate the feminine face of leadership - leadership based on the underlying principles of Oneness, harmony, peace, balance, partnership and cooperation.

Together We Co - Create a New Story The old story, based on greed, competition, over-consumption, disrespect, disharmony, and disempowerment has created an unhealthy, unsustainable, and unsafe planet where no one can truly thrive. The new story will be infused with spirit-based principles of compassion, harmony, cooperation, and life-sustaining love for all inhabitants of our planet.
